

ENCORE RESORT AT REUNION LEADS THE PACK AS A DESTINATION FOR MULTIGENERATIONAL TRAVEL

The Central Florida-Based Resort offers something for everyone at every age, while creating memories that last a lifetime

Reunion, FL. (February 28, 2020) — Planning dreamy vacation destinations is often a family affair but now, more than ever, multigenerational travel is the preference with millennial and Gen Z family travelers. Multigenerational travel is gaining momentum and popularity as more destinations are offering something for everyone, promoting inclusion and a variety of diverse activities.

Finding the right travel destination for an extended family will make all the difference in the experience. The biggest challenge is finding a place that will provide the togetherness that families crave, yet be a convenient and enjoyable experience for all. The perfect destination is where mom and dad can enjoy peace and quiet; grandparents with an active lifestyle play with their grandkids; teens escape to their own space and children's days are filled with activities.

The staff at Encore Resort at Reunion are experts in providing the right fit for the entire family within the private vacation home community in Orlando, Florida, located just minutes from Walt Disney World. Millennial and Gen Z travelers crave a less curated experience and the ease of a vacation home vs. a hotel. It provides a more "local experience" while enjoying the attractions offered throughout the destination. Encore offers a variety of homes with various floor plans, perfect for multi-gen families enjoy the affordability of a vacation rental, plus all the top-notch amenities you would expect from a luxury resort. Encore's vacation homes range from 4-13 bedrooms, each with its own bathroom making it comfortable for the whole family to stay under one roof. Homes include living spaces beautifully decorated for a Florida vacation and include a full kitchen, living room, private pool and backyard, home theater, billiards and games, and access to the resort's clubhouse. Amenities at the resort include private chef experiences, in-home spa services, dining plans, multiple restaurants, state-of-the-art water park, sports bar, kid's club, resort events (5ks, trivia, holiday events, etc.), sporting areas, fitness center, grocery delivery and transportation to the theme parks and airport. Vacation homes at Encore Resort at Reunion avoid the hassle of booking multiple hotel rooms, adjoining rooms and high resort fees.
